

Mobile Apps, Change You Can Believe In!

The world is changing quickly. Many times we find ourselves looking up from whatever we were doing and wondering, "Where did that come from? Why are people doing it that way? How does everyone seem to know about this except me?" In the world of the internet, we all stay connected at all times and all locations, so when changes occur, they are downloaded and spread in real time. Some of us simply choose to see it on our own time frame.

Look around when you walk into a restaurant, when you're waiting in line, when you're sitting around the airport or subway station.

Steve Jobs And The Power Focus!

I am writing this week's blog on Friday, October 5, which has great significance for me. My partner of 20 years back in my investment days was born on this day, along with my lifelong best friend Ronald Poles. It is also one year from the day that Steve Jobs passed away. Verne Harnish reminded me of this in his blog, and he shared this video put out by Apple. It is a nice tribute and a great reminder of what he and Apple have done for our everyday lives.

What Is Your Salary Cap?

Since the material in Greg Crabtree's book "Simple Numbers, Straight Talk, Big Profits" has been so enlightening, I want to share more from his book to help us all out in the financial arena. This is not the stuff they teach you in school. It has real world understanding of how to look at your business financials from an entrepreneurial perspective.

Discovering Your X-Factor

I have been working on putting together some content for a breakout session I'll be doing at the E0 Nerve Conference in Atlanta next week. This content was created for Insignia and Quantum leap E0 programs to help Forums engage in more stimulating discussions around your businesses with the other business owners. I really enjoy these events, catching up, and sharing with my existing E0 friends and meeting new ones.

STOP Doing It!

So much of what we do in business is about the things we need to get done. I need to write a report. I need to send emails to my clients. I need to create a budget. I need to put a plan together for the next quarterly meeting. On and on it goes with stuff we need to do in order to make progress in our business. Nothing is wrong with this, especially when it creates progress. Progress has been determined to be the number one motivator of both business owners and employees.

3 Keys to Business Greatness!

If you asked me the business authors out there who I think provide the most value, I would have to say Jim Collins and Peter Drucker.

3 Keys to Business Greatness!

If you asked me the business authors out there who I think provide the most value, I would have to say Jim Collins and Peter Drucker. Both of these guys have provided huge insight to the business community on how to run a successful company. Like most businesses, we at Efficiency are starting the year formulating strategies and goals to make forward progress toward our destination, and reading Collins' and Drucker's material has always been good preparation.

Choose to be Great with These 3 Behaviors!

In last week's blog, I introduced the three core behaviors for business greatness as researched by Jim Collins in his new book "Great by Choice." These behaviors include fanatical discipline, empirical creativity, and productive paranoia.
